

Minnesota Community-Based Suicide Prevention Review Process 2023

THE SUICIDE PREVENTION UNIT IS SEEKING VOLUNTEERS TO PARTICIPATE IN THE COMMUNITY-BASED SUICIDE PREVENTION GRANT REVIEW PROCESS.

Background

The Community-Based Suicide Prevention grant was created to serve the needs of Minnesotans at risk of suicide.

Roles and responsibilities

Grant reviewers will:

- Participate in a one-hour virtual training on Tuesday, March 21, 2023, 1-2 p.m. or Wednesday, March 22 10-11a.m.
- Participate in a four-hour virtual review team meeting on Wednesday, April 5, 2023 1-5 p.m.
- Complete and sign a Conflict-of-Interest Disclosure Form.
- Review and score approximately 6-10 grant applications using a predetermined score sheet. Reviewers will be given a week to review the grant applications.

Preferred qualifications/candidates

We are seeking volunteers who:

- Identify as people of color or American Indian
- Come from across Minnesota's urban and rural communities
- Have lived experience with and knowledge of suicide prevention

Why participate?

Participating in the review process is an opportunity for participants to:

- Help select the best applicants for funding suicide prevention work.
- Meet and network with other people.
- Learn about suicide prevention happening across Minnesota.
- Learn more about state grants and how the review process works.
- Practice using an equity lens.
